

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

COLONEL DAVID A. WEISHAAR

Colonel Weishaar is Commander, 184th Intelligence Wing, Kansas Air National Guard, McConnell Air Force Base, Kansas. He commands more than 1,200 Guardsmen who execute a broad spectrum of missions including intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance, network and information operations, and command and control all of which greatly enhances the U.S. Air Force's capability to provide actionable intelligence and information dominance for combat forces around the globe.

Col Weishaar initially entered the Air Force in January 1981 as an aircraft maintenance specialist maintaining the KC-135A and R. He separated from the active duty Air Force and joined the Kansas Air National Guard in 1985. He held various positions in the aircraft maintenance arena maintaining the F-4D, F-16A, B, C, and D, and the B-1B until his commissioning in 1996. After gaining his commission, Col Weishaar has held several positions in the 184th to include Chief, Logistics Plans, Chief of Supply, Network Operations and Security Squadron Crew Commander, 184th Communications Flight Commander, 127th Command and Control Squadron Commander, 299th Network Operations and Security Squadron Commander, 184th Regional Support Group Commander, and 184th Mission Support Group Commander. Col Weishaar assumed his current position in October 2015.
